

I value my quite time at home in the evenings and will not vote for anything or anyone who wishes to do away with or diminish the do not call list. This is the only time of the day that I do not have to talk on the phone and will disconnect it if the list is messed with.

Thank you.